

Low Income Household Refit Program

The NSW Government is helping households most in need to save power and cut their power bills through the Low Income Household Refit Program. As announced in the media on Sunday, the program is now being offered to 1,000 homes in Western Sydney. Every home that signs up will get a free:

- home visit by a trained assessor to find ways to save power in your home
- power saver kit to help kick-start your savings
- power saver action plan to show you other ways to save power and money.

Who can join?

To join the Western Sydney program, individuals must meet the following four criteria:

1. live in Western Sydney
2. rent from a private landlord or own their own home*
3. have their name on the energy bills
4. be an energy utility hardship customer
OR have one of the following:
  - Centrelink Pensioner Concession Card
  - Centrelink Low Income Health Care Card
  - Department of Veterans' Affairs Pensioner Concession Card
  - Department of Veterans' Affairs Repatriation Health Card

* The Low Income Household Refit Program also includes a program for Housing NSW, Aboriginal Housing and Community Housing residents.

To sign up for this program, email ccf@environment.nsw.gov.au or contact 1300 361 967.

Come and meet the team from Bunnings Villawood

Join the staff from Bunnings Villawood for morning tea on Wednesday 3 June 2009 at 10am in the Community Room to find out what is planned for the upgrade of the gardens at 99-101 Coleman & 1-3 Vincent Streets.

There is lots of good news to share including the donation of a rainwater tank from EGR Water!

ENERGY EFFICIENCY CENTRE OPEN DAY

Energy Australia's Energy Efficiency Centre at Homebush is having an Open Day on:

Wednesday 27 May 2009
5-8pm

There are interactive hands-on displays, touch screens and thermal imaging to demonstrate how you can save energy, money and the environment.

For more information visit:
www.eec.energy.com.au

For more information about the Sustainability Street program contact Holroyd City Council on 9840 9981.